RECITAL

1. The RSA Conference 2000, Europe, including the Exhibition portion of the Conference, is currently scheduled to take place at the Hilton München City, in Munich, Germany on April 10th – 13th, 2000 (the "Exhibition").
2. Exhibitor hereby agrees to lease exhibit space during the Exhibition according to Conference Rules, as well as the following terms and conditions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. RSA reserves the right to make changes in the Exhibition, including dates, times and location thereof. RSA will make reasonable efforts to inform Exhibitor of any such changes on a timely basis. RSA shall not assume any liability for damages in the event Exhibitor does not timely receive such information despite RSA's reasonable efforts to do so.
2. Exhibitor shall indicate no more than three booth locations in order of preference. The individuals managing the Exhibition (collectively, "Conference management") will make reasonable efforts to assign space as requested. RSA shall not assume any liability for damages in the event Exhibitor does not obtain its preferences despite RSA's reasonable efforts to so assign them. Before or after assignment of spaces, space allocations may be modified if the Conference management, in its sole and absolute discretion, deems it desirable and/or necessary.
3. Exhibitor may not assign, share or sublet any portion of the space allotted without prior written permission from the Conference management.
4. During the months of March 2000 and April 2000, Exhibitor hereby agrees to display the "RSA 2000" conference logo on the Exhibitor's home page on the Internet, linked back to the RSA 2000 conference website.
5. Exhibitor shall not maintain any exhibit which, because of noise, method of operation, or any other reason, becomes in RSA's reasonable judgment objectionable or detracts from the Exhibition as a whole. Exhibitor shall not display nor offer for sale at the Exhibition any products, services or promotional materials which (i) infringe the intellectual property or other rights of RSA and/or its affiliated companies; or (ii) disparage or depict RSA or its affiliates in an objectionable manner. RSA reserves the right to remove any such exhibits. RSA is not liable for any refund of rental or other expenses incurred by Exhibitor in such an event.
6. RSA has designated official Conference Contractors to provide the following products and services: drayage, machine moving, garbage, machinery erection, furniture, booth and floor decorations, signs, photos, telephone and Internet services, and electricians. RSA assumes no responsibility or liability for any of the services or materials so delivered by these vendors. Other labor may be available and charged at the then-prevailing rates charged by an available vendor, who is separate from and shall not be considered a Conference Contractor. Arrangements for these services are made between the Exhibitor and the vendor, and RSA assumes no responsibility or liability for any of the services or materials so delivered by such vendor.
7. Exhibitor is required to observe all union contracts in effect between RSA, the official Contractors, the Hilton München Park and various labor organizations during the Exhibition.
8. RSA will provide regular guard service at the extreme perimeters of the exhibit area during the Exhibition. However, RSA will not be liable for damage or loss of Exhibitor's properties through theft, fire, accident, natural or other causes, whether the result of negligence or otherwise. Exhibitor shall indemnify RSA against any claim resulting from the negligence of the Exhibitor. Exhibitor shall insure their exhibits and display materials.

10. Applicable taxes will be added to the amounts listed on Exhibitor Letter of Intent ("Booth Lease Fees"). One Hundred Percent (100%) of the total invoiced amount is due within sixty (60) days of signing the Agreement, or the day before the first day of the conference, whichever comes first.
